But the views and wishes of the Trustees, in this department, are so fully set forth in their address to the public, and in their memorial to the General Assembly, as also in the addresses of Wm. Frick, Esq. (one of their number,) and Professor Kennedy, that the Trustees beg leave to refer to those documents, laid before your body, as containing full expositions on this subject.

The Trustees have endeavoured to obtain a legal title to the University property from certain of the Professors in the Faculty of Physic, but wholly without success. They have also proffered a readiness to pay the whole judgment, interest and costs, due from those Professors to the Bank of Baltimore, amounting to the large sum of between $8000 and 9000, upon condition that those Professors should relinquish their demands to further payments from the Trustees, and the State—as will appear by reference to a copy of sundry resolutions passed by the Board, herewith transmitted. This has been refused by the parties concerned.

By an act which passed the Legislature at their session of 1825, pursuant to investigations which had been made by a large committee of that body, the Trustees were required to pay the sum of $3800 for the Infirmary—that having been ascertained to be the sum advanced on the credit of the Medical Professors, beyond receipts from the grants of the State.

At a subsequent session of the General Assembly, upon the application of these Gentlemen, the Trustees were required to pay a sum not exceeding the judgment of the Bank of Baltimore, provided the Board were satisfied so much of their money had been expended upon the Infirmary. The Board have never been able to satisfy themselves of the true state of their accounts, but were persuaded that the amplest justice would be done to those Professors if
